

Quality Policy

Last Updated: October 2023

To enhance the satisfaction level of our customers, employees, and other stakeholders, Loopio UK Ltd. (previously Avnio Ltd.), together with all other subsidiaries and related entities (collectively “Loopio UK”, “we”, “our”, or “us,” as applicable) strives to consistently exceed the following quality commitments as it relates to :

- Respond to internal and external issues impacting our organizational performance;
- Effectively monitor our systems to ensure transparent operations, and maintain consistent communications with stakeholders at large;
- Continue to provide high-quality products and services for total customer satisfaction;
- Continue to develop the skills of our employees through regular training and growth opportunities;
- Ensure effective implementation and continual improvements of our this Policy through periodic reviews; and
- Ensure compliance with all applicable statutory and regulatory requirements.

This Policy shall form the basis of establishing quality objectives at all levels, and by its implementation, we are committed to carrying out our business in a professional manner.

CHANGES TO THIS POLICY

We reserve the right to update this Policy at any time to reflect changes to our quality practices. If we make material changes to the Policy, we will provide notification by updating the “Last Updated” date at the top of the Policy and posting the new Policy to our website or other Services. We may also notify you about updates through email (sent to the email address specified in your account) or use other reasonable means to alert you to changes. We strongly encourage you to refer to this Policy often for the latest information about our quality practices.
